The Significance of the Equinox

A Level Playing Field

On the occasion of the spring equinox – March 20 – Sadhguru explains the cosmic significance of this day when Shiva sat as Ardhanari – half man, half woman.

Sadhguru: The celestial equator is an imaginary line drawn above the earth's equator, which divides the planet into northern and southern hemispheres. From this point, the magnetic field of the northern pole and southern pole alter in different ways. On the days of the equinox – one in March and another in September – the celestial equator is in perfect alignment with the sun. That means all the influences upon the planet are at equilibrium. For a human being, the significance of this day is that the masculine and feminine are at an even keel – within our own system, there is a level playing field.

Modern physics is clearly telling you that everything pulsing within your body is in some way a reflection of the cosmic pulse. The celestial equator is an imaginary line drawn above the earth's equator, which divides the planet into northern and southern hemispheres. From this point, the magnetic field of the northern pole and southern pole alter in different ways. On the days of the equinox – one in March and another in September – the celestial equator is in perfect alignment with the sun. That means all the influences upon the planet are at equilibrium. For a human being, the significance of this day is that the masculine and feminine are at an even keel – within our own system, there is a level playing field.

There is no doubt anymore about this because enough scientific evidence has been gathered. If this is just a small reflection of everything else, if you see clearly, you must see everything in the reflection. If you hold a mirror to the mountain you can see the mountain in the mirror. It is just that the mirror should be clean, not uneven or covered with muck. If it is a plain mirror, kept clean, you can see the mountain and the sky in it. You can see the world through your two eyes, which are so small. You do not need huge eyes to look at the world. In the same way, you do not have to become a huge piece of life to reflect the cosmos within you. It is just about alignment. The equinox is a day to bring balance, to not be identified with this or that, not even being a man or a woman, not even being human or another creature – just to sit & throb as life.

Shrimad Bhagwat Katha

By- Janak Dave

We, devotees of the Temple were especially blessed On June 2,3,and 4th. Acharya Kailash ji did Shrimad Bhagwat Katha and explained spiritual meanings of the stories contained in Shrimad Bhagwat. About 700-800 Bhakts/Devotees took advantage of this wonderful opportunity and I am positive all of them enjoyed the Katha and the associated festivities. Special accolades to all sponsors who provided Prasad to all attendees at the end of each katha session.

The first day started with Pothi yatra festivities and then acharya ji talked about different meanings of word Bhagwat as well as story of Atmadev Brahmin and his sons Gokarna and Dhundhkari. Acharyji explained that Atmadev is our own atman and we get lost in the fog, in our thinking (dhundhuli budhhi). We should try to channel our thoughts and actions for the good. He also talked about Mahatmya of Bhagwat. King Parikshit knew he was going to die in 7 days and used it wisely to reach Moksha. Panditji explained that we are in same boat and all of us will go on one of the 7 days, be it Monday, Saturday or any other day. So we should use our time on earth wisely. He explained how we can also reach Moksha in 7 days if we follow proper guidance of Gurus and Shastras, with full devotion.

On second day, he explained about Raja Ambrish and Durwasa Muni, and importance of Harinam. How Bhagwan is always there for the Bhakts and he is willing to go to any lengths, to protect/help his devotees. He also talked about Narad Muni who is always Chanting Harinam. If we can take Harinam even once, with complete purity and devotion we can go to Bhagwan's abode. (Vainkuth Dham). We also learned about Ganga Dushahara and arrival of maa Ganga on earth. After the age 75 years, we should be moving towards Vairagya, not be running after things. He did this by explaining Sanyas Ashram.

On the final day of katha, he explained stories about Ashawasthama, Parikshit, Nachiketa etc. Using Ashawasthama's story he explained how Draupadi, forgave the killers of her sons as she did not want other Mothers to go through what she had to endure. Forgiveness is a quality all of the bhakts should have. Katha ended with birth of Bhagwan Krishna and associated festivities including dancing. In other words, event started with joyful activities and ended with same.

On behalf of all Bhakts, I am taking this opportunity to congratulate Acharyaji for the katha and thank him to provide all of us with deeper spiritual understanding of stories in Bhagwat. I very much appreciate the input provided by Umakant Patel to put in this narrative.
