Thanks for a great response!

It was gratifying to receive an impressive response to last month's fund raising effort. With the December issue of Aradhana we sent out a self-addressed donation envelop directed towards temple loan reduction. So far we have raised approximately $3,000 with an average donation of $101/per devotee. These envelopes are still available at the temple office, which we expect more devotees would use and donate generously toward making the temple "loan free". We expect 100% participation.

Naivedyam: would God eat our offerings?

Adapted from the Web

Here is a good explanation of Naivedyam to God. Will God come and eat our offerings? Many of us could not get proper explanation from our elders. An attempt is made here.

A Guru-Shishya conversation:

A shishya, who did not believe in God, asked his Guru thus:

"Does God accept our naivedhyam (offerings)? If God were to eat the prasadam how would we distribute it to others? Does God really consume the prasadam, Guruji?"

The Guru did not respond. Instead, he asked the student to get ready for the classes.

That day, the Guru was teaching his students about the Upanishads. He taught them the mantra:

Om poornamadah poornamidam poornaat poor-namudachyate

Poornasya poornamaadaaya poornamevaavashishyate and explained: 'every thing came out from "Poorna or Totality." (Ishavasya upanishad).

Later, everyone was instructed to memorize the mantra by heart and all the boys started reciting over and over.

After a while, the Guru came back and asked the very student who had raised his doubt about Naivedyam to recite the mantra without peeking into the book, which he did. Now, the Guru smiled and asked the particular shishya who didn't believe in God :

'Did you really memorize everything as it is in the book?

"Yes Guruji, I've recited whatever is written as in the book.", the shishya said :

The Guru asked: "If you have absorbed every word into your mind then how come the words are still there in the book?"

He then explained: The words in your mind are in the SOOKSHMA STHITI (unseen form). The words in the book are there in the STOOLASTHITI (seen). Similarly, GOD too is in the 'sookshma sthiti'. The offering made to Him is done in 'stoola sthiti'. God takes the food in sookshma sthiti. Hence the quantity of food doesn't diminish. While GOD takes it in the "sookshma sthiti", We take it as 'prasadam' in 'sthoola sthiti'.

Hearing this the shishya felt guilty for his disbelief in God and surrendered himself to his GURU.
