Thanks for making the annual 5K Walk-a-thon a grand success

Credit goes to all the participants including the Children, many belonging to the Bal Vihar group of our Temple. Even the early morning chill could not dampen the spirits of the hundred odd souls assembled in the temple premises to participate in the HSGC organized fund-raising walk-a-thon on Sunday, April 28, 2019. The march was flagged off to the chants of Vedic hymns and Ganesh Vandana supercharging the environment with excitement. All this fanfare was exceeded only by the happiness of raising approximately $8,000, which will be used to pay down the temple loan. This was a repeat performance of the first Walk-a-thon held in April 2018.

Hindola Manorath (Utsava) finds its origin in the streets of Vrundavan about 5000 years ago where the Gopis rocked Lord Balakrishna on a decorated swing of the Kadam-tree.

Traditionally, every year the Hindola Manorath is celebrated during monsoon months of Ashadh Krishna 2nd through Shravan Krishna 2nd.

Jagannarh - The Lord of the Masses

Arpita Sunanda Basa

We are living in a world where we are divided amongst one another into different categories. Society has been differentiated by caste, religion and beliefs. This tradition has been practiced for ages. There have been instances of bloodshed, devastation and violence due to these dissimilarities. Mankind has been largely split into 2 groups; those who propagate violence as a means of establishing control, and those who seek peace and harmony for all. A means of seeking peace for each individual is in the arms of the Divine Grace. In Hinduism, we worship the Trinity of Bramha, Vishnu and Maheshwara.

In this Kalyug, Lord Jagannath is an incarnation of Lord Vishnu. He is the Lord of devotion, love, affection, faith and family. It is widely -- and incorrectly -- believed that Odisha is a poor state within India. But, Sri Mandira is making our Odisha world famous. Lord Jagannath makes our state rich with culture and heritage. Our people are simple in nature and intellectual. These two things paired with each other, make us far from the "poor people" others have made us out to be.

Lord Jagannath is like sunshine. Just like the Sun shines upon a puddle of mud and a beautiful Lotus flower the same way, Lord Jagannath is present for all his devotees. Whether they are priests, kings or outcasts, Lord Jagannath sees them as equal. This is why he is called the Lord of the Masses. To prove this, every year during Rath Yatra, Lord Jagannath -- along with his brother, Balabhadra and his sister, Subhadra -- leaves the restrictive bounds of his temple and steps down among people of all races, creeds and social classes for 10 days.

A story that shows the Lord's impartiality is about Dasia Bauri. Dasia Bauri was a poor man, belonging to the lower caste and was a devotee of Lord Jagannath. One day, he wished to offer a coconut from his coconut tree to Sri Jagannath. But, he was not allowed to do so, due to his social class. This is why he left the coconut in front of the Garuda Stambha. After some time, when the priest came outside of the temple, he saw that only the coconut shell was left in place of Dasia Bauri's offering. He was astonished. At the same time, Dasia Bauri was at home, dreaming of the Lord extending his hands out of the temple to accept his offering. He woke with a start and commemorated the moment with joy. A few days later, Lord Jagannath decided to test Dasia Bauri's devotion. In disguise, He went to Dasia Bauri's home and begged for some food. The devotee was in a dilemma, as there was nothing but a grain of rice to offer. His wife, groveling in shame, prayed to the guest and asked him to accept this single grain. Impressed, Lord Jagannath decided to reward his devotee. That night, Lord Jagannath appeared in the King's dream and ordered him to provide Dasia Bauri's family (of the lower caste) with Mahaprasad from the temple every day. This tradition is still followed today, after 1800 years.

Dasia Bauri's spiritual experience with Lord Jagannath shows us that despite the restrictions that the "Guardians of Religion" (generally of the upper caste) have tried to enforce, Lord Jagannath embraces all those who are truly devoted to him and worship him with honesty, regardless of their place in society.

Today, despite the distance from our Motherland, we wholeheartedly celebrate diversity and affection and are unified through the graces of our Divine Lord Jagannath.
Jai Jagannath.

An enchanting Bhajan Snadhya: May 5, 2019

Rajesh Nandikolmath

Bhajan Sandhya, a mesmerizing evening of devotional bhajans was organized at Greater Cincinnati Hindu Temple on May 5th, 2019, from 3:30pm to 7:15pm.

It turned out to be a highly successful program and the a lot of credit goes to the planners and organizers. The artists performed almost 35 Bhajans a large number of which was performed by the sponsor families; and the remaining by other devotees.

Sponsor families put in a lot of effort into song selection and practicing them. The songs demonstrated a wide variety, mainly devotional, to many Gods and Goddesses and sung into multiple languages. Flow of the overall program was very smooth with Bhajans being performed one after other without any delay.

Some other key aspects of this program were that the devotees singing Bhajans ranged from kids of age 5 to all the way up to seniors. Every Bhajan singer performed well and kept the audience engaged.

It probably was the first time when on a Sunday evening about 250 devotees came in and listened to Bhajan Sandhya program.

Some of Bhajan performed were.. Majha Maher Pandhari..., Sri Radhe Govinda Man Bhaj Le..., Suraj Ki Garmi Se..., Likhanwaliye..., Shiv Bhola Bhandari..., Meethe Ras Se Bharori..., Vaishnav Jan..., Ek Dantaaye..., Aaj Ho Ganpati Ale Dwaari..., Humne Aangan Nahin Buhaara..., Majha Ma-naaa... and many more...

Changing lives, one smile at a time. . .
